

HR DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

16 April 2025

1. WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS DOCUMENT?

Sodexo is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information.

This privacy notice (also referred to as a “privacy statement” in the Global Data Protection Policy) describes how we collect and use personal information about you during and after your working relationship with us, in accordance with the (UK) General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

It applies to all current and former employees, workers, and contractors.

For this notice, the Sodexo entity which employs or contracts with you is the Data Controller, this will be:

Sodexo Limited of One Southampton Row, London WC1B 5HA

Sodexo Live UK Limited of One Southampton Row, London, WC1B 5HA

Sodexo Remote Sites Scotland Ltd of The Exchange 62 Market Street Aberdeen
AB11 5PJ

Sodexo Global Services Ltd of One Southampton Row, London WC1B 5HA

Sodexo Ireland Ltd of Fourth floor, One Grand Parade, Dublin 6, D06 R9X8

Heritage Portfolio Ltd of 49A North Fort Street, Edinburgh, EH6 4HJ

The Good Eating Company Ltd of One Southampton Row, London WC1B 5HA

Alliance in Partnership Ltd of One Southampton Row, London WC1 5HA

The entity is referred to as Sodexo in this Notice. This Notice also applies where we manage staff on behalf of clients and where applicable to agency staff.

This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal information about you during and after your working relationship with us, in accordance with Data Protection Law.

The Data Controller is part of the Sodexo Group of companies. Sodexo was founded in France and has developed into an international company operating in 80 countries worldwide. Your Personal Data may be shared with Sodexo entities within the UK or EEA where joint services are provided, for example, HR, payroll, legal and IT. You can find out more about the Sodexo Group by visiting our website. Sodexo Ltd also acts as a Data Controller for Sodexo Live UK Limited, Sodexo Remote Sites Scotland Ltd, Sodexo Global Services Ltd and Heritage Portfolio Ltd.

If you have any questions, comments, and requests regarding this privacy notice, you can email your local Data Protection contact, DataProtection.UkandIE@Sodexo.com.

Sodexo is responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. We are required under data protection legislation to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice.

This notice does not form part of any contract of employment or other contracts to provide services. We may update this notice at any time but if we do so, we will update you on any changes as soon as reasonably practical.

You must read this notice, together with any related data protection policies and other privacy notices or updates we may issue from time to time so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information and what your rights are under data protection legislation.

2. DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

We will comply with data protection laws. This says that the personal information we hold about you must be:

1. Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
2. Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
3. Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
4. Accurate and kept up to date.
5. Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
6. Kept securely.

3. THE KIND OF INFORMATION WE HOLD ABOUT YOU, HOW WE USE IT AND THE LAWFUL BASIS

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to.

We collect and use information, such as identity and contact details, job performance, salary, and training, to perform the employment contract with staff, comply with legal requirements (such as PAYE) and our legitimate interests of running a business, health, and safety and providing services. Where we rely on legitimate interests, these are concerning expected business purposes, such as health and safety and are limited to respect our staff's privacy.

ANNEX A SETS OUT MORE DETAILS ABOUT THESE.

Less commonly - we may also use your personal information in the following situations

1. Where we need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests).
2. Where it is needed in the public interest or for official purposes.
3. Consent

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds that justify our use of your personal information.

4. HOW WE USE SPECIAL CATEGORY PERSONAL INFORMATION

“Special categories” of particularly sensitive personal information, such as information about your health, racial or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, or trade union membership, require higher levels of protection. We also have in place an appropriate policy document for processing this type of Personal Data. Special categories” of particularly sensitive personal information require higher levels of protection. We need to have further justification for collecting, storing, and using this type of personal information. The usual reasons we process special categories of personal information are:

1. In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent. Where we use biometric data for clocking in and out, this information can only be used with your consent. You will be offered an alternative to the collection of biometric data.
2. Where we need to carry out our legal obligations or exercise rights in connection with employment.
3. Where it is needed in the public interest, such as for equal opportunities monitoring, health, and safety or concerning our occupational pension scheme.

Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed concerning legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

Annex B sets out more details about these.

5. INFORMATION ABOUT CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS, CONVICTIONS, OFFENCES, AND INVESTIGATIONS

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations and provided, we do so in line with our Global Data Protection Policy and, where relevant, the Employment Checks Policy. Where appropriate, we will collect information about criminal convictions as part of the recruitment process or we may be notified of such information directly by you in the course of you working for us. We only collect this information where it is appropriate given the nature of the role.

Less commonly, we may use information relating to criminal convictions where it is necessary for relation to legal claims, where it is necessary to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

We may also process such information about members or former members in the course of legitimate business activities with the appropriate safeguards.

JUSTICE SERVICES

Where your role means your work is concerning prisons some of your Personal Data will be used outside of the scope of GDPR and will fall under Law Enforcement Processing and biometric data may be required for security reasons within a prison. You will be provided with further information about this if it applies to you.

6. HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED?

We collect personal information about employees, workers, and contractors through the application and recruitment process, either directly from candidates or sometimes from an employment business/agency or background check provider and may use public information on social media. We may sometimes collect additional information from third parties including former employers, credit reference agencies or other background check agencies, existing or potential clients or customers, suppliers, subcontractors, trade partners or external service providers.

We may also collect personal information from the trustees or managers of pension arrangements operated by a group company.

We will collect additional personal information in the course of job-related activities whilst you are working for us, this can include information from automated systems or third parties.

6.1 MONITORING

There may be specific monitoring which takes place as part of your role, you will be provided with more information about this if it applies to you. For example, it may be necessary for your health and safety to know your location if you are working on your own in a remote place.

We may operate CCTV on some of our sites and if you are working on one of our client's sites, such as providing security services in a hospital, the client may operate CCTV or Body Worn cameras (BWC). CCTV/BWC is usually installed for the purposes of the detection or prevention of crime and public safety. It may also on occasion be used in disciplinary or other HR investigations.

If you use digital work equipment, there will be security scans, for example, to check for viruses.

7. AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING

Automated decision-making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision about you, without human intervention. If automated decision making has legal or other significant effects, we are only allowed to use automated decision-making in the following circumstances:

1. With your consent and where appropriate measures are in place to safeguard your rights.
2. Where it is necessary to perform the contract with you and appropriate measures are in place to safeguard your rights.
3. In limited circumstances, if it is authorised in a law which sets out appropriate measures to safeguard your rights.

If we make an automated decision based on special category information, we must have either your explicit written consent or it must be justified in the public interest, and we must also put in place appropriate measures to safeguard your rights.

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified you.

8. IF YOU FAIL TO PROVIDE PERSONAL INFORMATION

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have entered with you (such as paying you or providing a benefit), or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations (such as to ensure the health and safety of our workers).

9. CHANGE OF PURPOSE

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

10. DATA SHARING

We may have to share your data with third parties, including third-party service providers and other entities in the group.

We require third parties to respect the security of your data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

We may transfer your personal information outside the UK/ EU.

If we do, you can expect a similar degree of protection in respect of your personal information.

10.1. Why might you share my personal information with third parties

We will share your personal information with third parties where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the working relationship with you, to provide client services or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so.

We would expect to disclose relevant parts of your personal data where appropriate and necessary to the following classes of recipients:

1. internally to colleagues or managers as part of the employment relationship.
2. externally to regulatory or statutory bodies such as HMRC, or for the purposes of Pensions administration, benefits provision, participation in share plans, disclosures to the stock exchange, disclosure to shareholders such as directors' remuneration, auditors, employee engagement surveys, training providers and payroll.
3. externally to clients of Sodexo, where your role means you would be working on a client's premises or systems, when retendering a contract, or in the context of a possible sale or restructuring of the business.
4. To suppliers or partners in order to provide benefits, including to enable the supplier to verify that you are entitled to the benefit ( for example by evidencing that you are a Sodexo employee).
5. Under TUPE regulations or concerning a sale or acquisition of a business.

6. Other Group Companies, where it is required for providing joint services such as IT (including hosting and system maintenance support), Information security, HR, succession planning, business re-organisation, reporting (such as company performance), administering group pensions or share plans, legal claims, and legal obligations.
7. if the law or a legal procedure requires us to do so, (ii) in response to a request by public authorities or other officials or (iii) if we are of the opinion that transferring these data is necessary or appropriate to prevent any physical harm or financial loss or in respect of an investigation concerning a suspected or proven unlawful activity (iv) providing the service/contract, (v) fraud protection and credit risk reduction, (vi) to protect rights, property and safety or enforce our agreements, (vii) buy or sell business assets

If a request for disclosure is made from a third party, such as the police or an insurer, we decide whether to disclose information on a case-by-case basis.

We may also share your Personal data with authorized service providers, called data processors (for example: technical service providers) , that we may call upon for the purpose of providing our Services. We ensure that every disclosure of your Personal data to an authorized service provider is framed by a data processing agreement, reflecting the commitments laid out in this policy. We do not authorize our service providers to use or disclose your data, except to the extent necessary to deliver the Services on our behalf or to comply with legal obligations.

10.2. Third-party service providers

Our third-party service providers (data processors) are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and following our instructions.

10.3. Transferring information outside the UK/EEA

As SODEXO is an international group, your Personal data may be transmitted to internal or external recipients that are authorized to perform Services on our behalf. Data protection law does not allow the transfer of Personal Data to third countries outside UK and EEA that do not ensure an adequate level of data protection. Some of the third countries in which Sodexo operates outside UK and EEA do not provide the same level of data protection as the country in which you reside and are not recognized by the European Commission or ICO as providing an adequate level of protection for individuals' data privacy rights.

We have also implemented appropriate safeguards to ensure an adequate level of protection of your Personal data, even if the Personal data is processed by another Sodexo entity that did not collect your Personal data originally.

Sodexo has implemented the Sodexo's Binding Corporate Rules (BCRs) within Sodexo Group. Therefore, even if the third countries in which Sodexo entities operate are located outside of the European Economic Area, your Personal data is protected in the same way that they would have been by any entity located within the European Economic Area.

To guarantee the security and confidentiality of Personal data thus transmitted, we will take all necessary measures to ensure that this data receives adequate protection, such as entering into data transfer agreements with the recipients of your personal data based on the applicable standard contractual clauses (“SCCs”) or IDTA other valid transfer mechanisms and we carry out, in accordance with the European Court of Justice's decision of 16 July 2020 "Scherms II" (Case C 311-18), a risk assessment of the transferred data. If you would like to receive a copy of the safeguards in place to secure data transfers outside the UK or European Economic Area, please contact the Data Protection Officer.

11. DATA SECURITY

We implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect Personal Data against accidental or unlawful alteration or loss, or from unauthorized, use, disclosure, or access, in accordance with our Group Information and Systems Security Policy.

We take, when appropriate, all reasonable measures based on Privacy by design and Privacy by default principles to implement the necessary safeguards and protect the Processing of Personal Data. We also carry out, depending on the level of risk raised by the processing, a Privacy impact assessment (“PIA”) to adopt appropriate safeguards and ensure the protection of the Personal Data. We also provide additional security safeguards for data considered to be Sensitive Personal Data. Where We have given you (or where you have chosen) a password which enables you to access certain parts of our site, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although We will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our site; any transmission is at your own risk. Once We have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

12. STORAGE LIMITATION AND ACCURACY

Sodexo will keep Personal Data that is processed accurate and, where necessary, up to date. We will store your Personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected and processed. This period may be extended, if applicable, for any amount of time prescribed by any legal or regulatory provisions that may apply.

To determine the retention period of your Personal data, we take into consideration several criteria such as:

- The purpose for which we hold your Personal data (e.g., the employment relationship)
- Our legal and regulatory obligations in relation to that Personal data (e.g., accounting reporting obligations).
- Any specific requests from you in relation to the deletion of your Personal data or Account.
- Any statutory limitation periods allowing us to manage our own rights, for example the defence of any legal claims in case of litigation; and
- Any local regulations or guidance (e.g., regarding cookies).

Please find more information about the storage period of your Personal data in Annex 1 below.

13. RIGHTS OF ACCESS, CORRECTION, ERASURE AND RESTRICTION

Third Party beneficiary rights

If applicable in your country, you can enforce the third-party beneficiary rights afforded to you by the Sodexo BCRs.

13.3. No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

13.4. What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

13.5 Right to Withdraw Consent

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your specific consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. When you provide your consent, you will ordinarily be provided with the method to withdraw it. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

14. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY NOTICE

We reserve the right to amend this privacy notice at any time and will notify you of any changes as soon as reasonably practicable. We may also notify you in other ways, from time to time, about any changes we may make to the processing of your personal data.

LINKS AND SOCIAL

Links to other websites should not be considered as navigation tracking and we decline any responsibility concerning the personal data protection practices implemented by these third-party companies, each of which acts as a separate Controller of your Personal data on their own perimeter. Once you leave our Site or click on the logo/link to one of these social networks, it is your responsibility to check the privacy policy applicable to that other platform.

When you click on social media icons, we may have access to the personal data that you have made public and accessible via your profiles on the social networks in question. If you do not want us to have access to your Personal data published in the public spaces of your profile or your social accounts, then you should use the procedures provided by the social networks in question to limit access to this information.

Our legitimate interests are to run a business, provide and improve our services to clients, retain and develop staff, health, and safety, keep our data, premises and equipment secure, marketing and PR and corporate social responsibility.
